Important information for MVCC applicants and students

MVCC students and applicants for admission to MVCC are entitled under Federal regulations to receive information on a variety of topics. Included is information about students' graduation, completion, and transfer-out rates; tuition and fees; cost of room, board, books, supplies, and other expenses; withdrawal and refund policies and procedures; financial aid availability, eligibility, application, selection, academic progress requirements, and disbursements, including Title IV grants and loans; instructional programs, facilities, and personnel; college and program accreditation, facilities, and services for students with disabilities; and campus crime information and security policies.

The majority of this information is contained in this catalog or in the College's online Student Handbook. Campus crime statistics and important safety information can be found at www.mvcc.edu, in a publication titled "Your Right to Know," or from offices including Admissions, Records and Registration, Public Safety, or Marketing and Communications.
