

Carpentry and Masonry

Certificate

This certificate is for the individual wishing to enter the construction field. The combination of laboratory and lecture sessions provides the theory and the practical application of the construction trades. Graduates can find employment as carpenters or masons. Some graduates enter into their own businesses.

Total Credit Hours: 39 - 41

First Semester

CB121 Masonry 1	4.0
CB122 Masonry 2	4.0
CB123 Masonry 3	4.0
CB126 Blueprint Reading (Construction Trades)	3.0

Second semester

CB101 Carpentry 1	4.0
CB102 Carpentry 2	4.0
CB103 Carpentry 3	4.0
CB131 Construction Estimating	3.0
Program Elective (a)	3.0 - 5.0

(a) Program Electives include: BM150 Principles of Entrepreneurship OR CB104 Basic Woodworking.